3. Failure of the fiduciary to notify the court of the fiduciary's current address shall be grounds for removal. Not less than ten days written notice of the hearing to remove shall be given to the fiduciary by regular mail at the last address contained in the case file or by other method of service as the court may direct.

4. Filings containing partially or wholly illegible signatures of counsel, parties or officers administering oaths may be refused, or, if filed, may be stricken, unless the typewritten or printed name of the person whose signature is purported to appear is clearly indicated on the filing.

3.     A judgment entry or order bearing evidence of erasures or containing longhand interlineations will not be accepted unless approved by the court.

4.     Upon failure to comply with this rule, the matter may be dismissed for want of prosecution or such further action may be taken by the court as is necessary or required by law.

4. If an interested person appears at a non-oral hearing, the court may continue the matter for oral hearing.

RULE 57.4: Motions to Seal Information Contained Within Court Records

1. A request to seal information contained within a court record shall be made by written motion. If the motion is filed simultaneously with the information that is the subject of the motion, then the subject information shall be sealed pending the Court's ruling on the motion. If the motion is filed after the filing of the information that is the subject of the motion, then the subject information shall remain open to the public pending the Court's ruling on the motion.

2. The motion to seal information in a court record may be made by any party to a case, by the individual about whom information is disclosed in the record, or on the Court's own motion.

3. The movant shall give notice of the motion to seal, and of the hearing date, time, and place, in accordance with the applicable Civil Rules, to all parties in the case and to any additional persons that the Court may order.

4. The Court may seal information in a court record if it finds that the presumption of public access is outweighed by an interest greater than that of the public's right to access. In making its decision, the Court shall consider, without limitation, the following factors:

- a. Risk of injury to individuals;
- b. Individual privacy rights and interests;
- c. Proprietary business information; and
- d. Public safety.

5. When sealing information contained within a court record, the Court shall use the least restrictive means available, including, where possible, redacting specified information from the underlying document rather than restricting access to the entire document.

6. Upon granting a motion to seal, the Court shall separately maintain the sealed information, along with a copy of the Court's sealing order, and may require counsel for the movant to file a redacted copy for the public record.

7. For purposes of public access to Court records, the Court manages its paper file the same as its electronic file. Generally, the Court will not restrict access to one such file-type without restricting access to the other.

RULE 57.5: Motions to Unseal Information Contained Within Court Records

1. A request to unseal information contained within a court record that is currently sealed shall be made by written motion. Such motion may be made by any member of the public, by any party to the underlying case, by the individual about whom information is disclosed in the record, or on the Court's own motion.

2. The sealed information that is the subject of the motion will remain under seal pending the Court's ruling on the motion.

3. The movant shall give notice of the motion to unseal, and of the hearing date, time, and place, in accordance with the applicable Civil Rules, to all parties in the case, to the individual who requested that the subject information be sealed, and to any additional persons that the Court may order.

4. The Court may open public access to a sealed court record if it finds that the presumption of public access outweighs other factors supporting restriction of access. In making its decision, the Court shall consider, without limitation, the following factors:

- a. Risk of injury to individuals;
- b. Individual privacy rights and interests;
- c. Proprietary business information; and
- d. Public safety.

5. If the motion to unseal is granted, the Court shall release only the specific information that warrants release and shall keep the remainder under seal.

  - (b) Original document – The facsimile or e-mail copy of the source document received by the Court and maintained as the “original” document in the Court’s file. A document transmitted by facsimile or filed by e-mail shall be accepted as the original filing if the sender complies with all of the requirements set forth in this Local Rule. The sender need not file any source document with the Court.

  - (c) Any filing for which the Court must effectuate service of summons; or
  - (d) Any proceedings deemed confidential pursuant to Ohio Law.
3. Electronic Cover Page: All filings by facsimile or e-mail shall be accompanied by a Court approved cover page as set forth in Appendix A setting forth:

This e-mail address is available twenty-four (24) hours per day seven (7) days per week. E-mails sent to any other address are not covered by or permitted under this Local Rule and will not be considered filed. All email filings shall state the Case Number and Case Caption in the subject line.
  5. Facsimile: The telephone number of the facsimile machine available for receiving fax filings for the Court is 740-941-3086. Transmissions sent to any other location are not covered by nor permitted under this Local Rule. Faxes may be sent only during normal business hours.
  6. Document Restrictions: A facsimile or e-mail transmission may contain more than one document but may not apply to more than one case number per transmission. Motions and other filings making reference to or incorporating other documents attached to the motion or other filing as an exhibit thereof shall be considered as part of a single filing for purposes of this rule.
  7. Fees: There are no specific costs related to Electronic Filings except to the extent that the filings are taxed as costs to any case. Filings in excess of ten pages shall be assessed a copying charge at the rate of ten cents per page. It is the sender's responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient funds deposited with the Court with which to satisfy the cost relating to the filing.
  8. Filing: Acceptance or Rejection. The Court is authorized to reject any electronic filing if it fails to comply with any of the requirements of this rule. The Court shall notify sender of said rejection.
  9. Date and Time: For purposes of this rule electronically transmitted documents may be received during the regular business hours of the Court. Any documents received after 3 p.m. on a regular business day shall be filed and docketed the following business day. Any documents received on weekends or other legal holidays shall be filed and docketed the next business day.
  10. Signatures: Any signature on documents transmitted by facsimile or e-mail shall be considered as that of the attorney or other person that it purports to be for all purposes. If it is established that the documents were transmitted without authority, the Court may order the filing stricken. Any electronic filings shall contain a signature and must be followed by the printed name of the person signing the source document.

11. Verification of Receipt for e-mail filings: The Court shall send a delivery receipt. Once the document has been filed the Court shall confirm said filing via email by returning to sender the time-stamped documents.

12. Verification of Receipt for facsimile filings: Parties submitting filings by fax must contact a court clerk and confirm that transmission was received. Proof of transmission forms from the fax machine are not sufficient to confirm receipt.

COMMENT:

E-mail Filings Under Civil Rule 5(E), pleadings, motions, applications, and other filings may be filed with the Court by e-mail transmission subject to conditions in the rule. This Local Rule has been instituted solely for the convenience of those filing documents with the Court. The Court does not assume any new or additional responsibilities, obligations or liabilities by virtue of this Local Rule, except as expressly provided in this Rule. The sender assumes all responsibilities, obligations and liabilities for using this method of filing. This Local Rule pertains only to the method of filing and does not override, alter, amend, revoke or otherwise change any Local Rule or Civil Rule respecting the requirements of any filings such as obtaining the consent of parties or counsel or obtaining signatures or the authorization to sign for opposing counsel.

RULE 57.7: Schedule for Filings

The time schedule established by law for filing of papers, pleadings, inventories and appraisals, accountings, etc. will be strictly applied and followed in all cases, unless extended by court order upon the timely filing of motion and memoranda.

If any case becomes delinquent for any such filing as required by law, the court shall first notify the attorney of record of such delinquency in writing and the distribution of notice shall be docketed in the case.

If the delinquency is not cured within a reasonable time, not to exceed a month, the court shall send a second notice of delinquency to the attorney of record and the fiduciary whom he represents of such delinquency, and the mailing of such notice shall be docketed in the case.

If the delinquency is still not resolved within a reasonable time of the second notice, not to exceed a month, the court may cite both the fiduciary and attorney into court to explain their failure and to determine a date certain on which such filings shall be made. The court specifically reserves unto itself the right to remove the fiduciary and his attorney for failure to timely file said pleadings, etc., as required by law and further to limit the practice of any attorney who becomes delinquent on filings, etc. In addition, there will be a $5.00 fee assessed to court costs for each citation issued.

Further, the court at its discretion may grant an extension of time to file such pleadings, etc., upon receipt of an appropriate application which sets forth the reason an extension is desired.

No account will be accepted for filing until the inventory on which such accounting is based has been formally approved.

RULE 57.8:           Relieving Estates from Administration

When an application to relieve an estate from administration has been filed, at least five (5) days notice in writing of the hearing on the application shall be given to the surviving spouse and the heirs at law unless said notices are waived or found unnecessary.

In cases of estates entitled to be relieved from administration, where there is a will, such will shall be presented for probate. If the will is admitted to probate, an application for an order relieving the estate from administration may be filed in lieu of the appointment of the executor named in the will. If probate of the will is denied, an application for an order relieving the estate from administration may be granted and distribution made under the laws of intestate succession. Where no heirs are known to the applicant, the court shall set the application for hearing not less than three (3) weeks from the date of such filing and shall require publication.

Where administration of the estate has commenced, the entry relieving the estate from administration shall contain the words “The filing of a final account is dispensed with and the fiduciary and surety, if any, are hereby discharged.”

RULE 57.9:           Electronic Filing of Court Documents

The Court will accept electronic filings for case types as outlined in the Court’s most recent administrative order. The most recent administrative order is available on the court’s website at www.pikecountypjcourt.com.

All documents filed through the E-File System in accordance with this Rule must also comply with the standards set forth in the Local Rules of the Probate Court, the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Rules of Superintendence.
